"Certain Influential Support" Lacking For Factory--Vale Says

INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE TELL COUNCIL NO USE GOING FURTHER

MAYOR IS "REGUSTED"

The town should do nothing further about either of the two new industries which have been under investigation during the past two weeks, according to the industrial committee's report to the town council on Monday evening.

Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale made the report. The first to be reported on was a man who supplies parts to a large manufacturer of electric refrigerators. This man has been superintendent in a larger firm, and would take over the part of the business manufacturing the refrigerator parts and some other specialties. He needed about $2,000 and a factory. He would employ only two or three men at first.

Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd wanted the town to provide the Odd-fellows' hall practically rent-free and help him indirectly to the extent of $500.

"The industrial committee does not feel that the town should advance $500 to enable him to start up," said Mr. Vale.

Mr. Vale then reported on the Quebec textile firm which is moving to Ontario with a $45,000 pay-roll.

NEWMARKET FAMILIES DO NOT BENEFIT

Newmarket has received no advice of the dominion government scheme of giving away 6,000,000 pounds of surplus butter, Councillor A. V. Higginson told The Era yesterday.

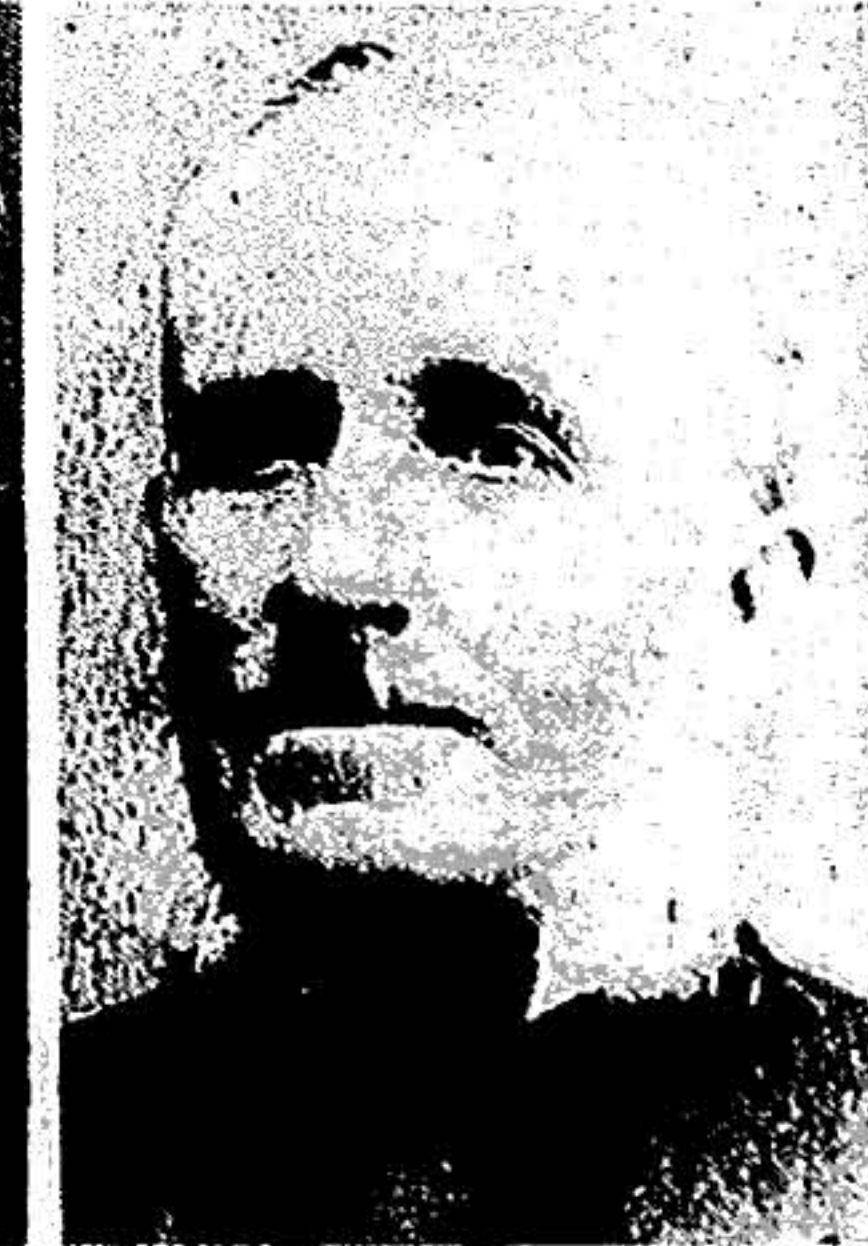

In Toronto 20,000 relief families will receive an extra pound of butter for each pound purchased on their relief vouchers during the next six weeks.

Mr. Vale reported that the heads of the firm had visited Newmarket and requested a new building of 15,000 square feet.

"They would pay rent of $1,000 a year, and pay for water and light," said Mr. Vale. "It is with great regret that we don't recommend that the town take this step."

"The easiest thing to do is to do nothing," replied Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd. "It relieves everybody of responsibility. In my opinion both industries should be brought here. It is all right if you want to stay the same size. Newmarket is strategically situated for industries."

"These gentlemen thought Newmarket an ideal place to live. After investigating a dozen other places, they preferred Newmarket. The industrial committee are bringing in a do-nothing report. If the majority of the

Royal Trip Through North York Becomes Hearty Friendship

ZEPHYR THRONG GIVE GREAT OVATION TO ROYAL COUPLE

THOUSANDS MAKE TRIP

People of this district struck up an intimate friendship with their majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth on Tuesday compared with which their trip to Toronto on Monday, May 22, must be termed a mere nodding acquaintance.

Such a wonderful view of the royal couple was obtained on the rear platform of their graceful blue and silver train that the Toronto glimpses of them as they drove by at 15 to 25 miles per hour were not to be compared.

The people of Newmarket and Aurora and of the adjoining townships went to Pefferlaw, Zephyr, Mount Albert, Cedar Valley and Vaudor. The engineer of the royal train obligingly slowed down wherever he saw a crowd congregated and their majesties appeared graciously on the rear platform.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, prime minister of Canada, and one-time member for this riding, was seen on another car at most of these places. Mr. King re-

EARLY LEAD BY KING TURNS TO SUTTON'S WIN

INJURY TO SHATKI, KING CATCHER, ENDS GAME

PLAY FIVE INNINGS

By AUBREY TIMMINS

Sutton started the softball season here with a 6-3 victory over the King entry on Thursday night before a large crowd.

Sutton had a slight edge over the visitors, due in some part to the pitching of Harry "Whammy" Milroy and the brilliant catching of Bill Burkholder. There were five innings played, the game ending shortly after Mike Shatki, the visiting catcher, was injured and had to be carried from the field.

Hunter and Davis put the visitors two up in the opening inning when they were driven in by hits from the bats of Lloyd and Shatki. Jim McKelvey bunted and advanced to second on the over-throw. Cornish was given a base on balls. McKelvey stole to third base. Carson Fairbairn struck out. Burkholder was passed, filling the bases. Smith fled out to short left. McKelvey was caught off third to retire the side.

As the visitors came to bat Shatki struck out, to be followed by Walker, who fled out to the infield. Davis hit a single but Milroy struck Lloyd out for the third out.

McKenzie for Sutton fled out to left field, Waldon getting a single. Milroy hit a line drive to third. It was fumbled, advancing Waldon to third. Powell hit a double to center field, on which Waldon scored, but Milroy, coming from second, was thrown out at the plate. McKelvey, the third out, failed to reach first on a bunt towards third base.

Hunter for King reached first on a slow play. Shatki struck out easily on Milroy's slow ball. Rawlings was passed. Shropshire struck out. Shatki hit a pop fly to McKelvey as the side retired. The score was King 2, Sutton 1.

Cornish was thrown out at first with Fairbairn following with a hit to short.

Burkholder fled out to centre, Leon Smith hit to deep centre, Fairbairn scoring. Mike Shatki blocked the plate as Fairbairn was coming in and as a result suffered a severe head injury near his left eye.

Smith scored but Umpire Bert Crittenden at the plate sent him back to third. He scored later on McKelvey's long drive to left field. Waldon hit over second. Milroy made a safe bunt. Powell fled out to deep centre. Robertson replaced McKelvey at first base.

Shatki struck out. Walker tapped to first for the second out. Davis hit to short and advanced to second when Robertson dropped Page 8, Col. 8

Physician Dies Attending Nonagenarian Seeing King

DR. H. E. JOHNSON PRACTISED IN MOUNT ALBERT FOR 27 YEARS

Tragedy accompanied the celebration of the stop of the king and queen at Zephyr station on Tuesday, when Dr. H. E. Johnson of Mount Albert, summoned to assist an elderly man who had fainted during the heat and excitement, himself collapsed and died a few moments later, as a result of heart failure. He was 60 years of age.

Having administered aid to 60-year-old Wm. Hill of Stouffville, whom he had called to assist, Dr. Johnson collapsed and was taken to Zephyr by a friend, Ross McCaughin. Dr. W. L. Carruthers of Mount Albert was out when called and Dr. L. W. Dales of Newmarket was summoned. Before he arrived Dr. Carruthers had arrived and found that Dr. Johnson was dead.

Herbert Edgar Johnson was born at Barrie. He obtained his degree from the University of Toronto, and practised medicine in Mount Albert for 27 years.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Ethel Pearl Todd, and three

NOT ALLOWED TO DUMP YOUR OWN GARBAGE EVEN AT DUMP, SOLICITOR TELLS COUNCILLORS

A complaint about dumping tin cans at Fairy Lake, made to him by a citizen, was brought to the town council meeting by Councillor J. L. Spilllette on Monday evening.

"People take their tin cans down there on Sunday mornings and dump them out of their cars," said Mr. Spilllette.

"Refer it to the police," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd. "One or two prosecutions would stop that."

"The reason they dump their garbage down there is that the town dump is closed up at 5 p.m.," said Councillor Arthur Evans. "It should be open until 6."

"Under the by-law you can't dump your own garbage anyway," said N. L. Mathews, K. C., clerk and solicitor.

"Yes, you can if the attendant is there," said Mr. Evans. Mr. Mathews didn't think so.

NO MEASLES DEATHS SAID TO BE UNUSUAL

Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., said this week: "After investigating a number of reports that children of several families have ignored the quarantine regulations for measles, I have come to the conclusion that the parents and children of our little town have been very good in living up to the request of the health nurse and the sanitary inspectors. The epidemic is letting up a little, and the nice part of it all is, that so far there have not been any fatal cases. A representative of the department of health visited the town a few days ago, and, in the course of his remarks, said it was unusual to go through an epidemic such as we are having without some fatalities."

Dr. Wesley said that quarantine regulations must still be observed.

IT'S A TRIUMPH FOR R. S. A. TRUMPETERS

The R. S. A. buglers took a smashing victory from the Davis Leather team in the first game of the new commercial softball league, played at the Stuart Scott school grounds last evening.

The boys had completed five innings with a score of 10-4 for the band boys when the rain came. Five innings makes a game, although seven are to be played if light and weather permit.

Preston and Mortimer each got three runs, and Blight turned in a steady pitching game for the band. Drucery completed two of the four Davis runs, and McNetney and Alderson, in the pitching box, did better than the score would indicate.

Reds Get Away To Good Start At Richmond Hill

SHOW POWER IN OPENING GAME AT RICHMOND HILL

The 1939 edition of the Newmarket softball club swung into action in Richmond Hill last Thursday night and downed the homesters by an 11-3 count.

The Redmen once again indicated that they are the team to beat for the title and showed a smooth, well-balanced and hard-hitting outfit. The addition of Herb Cain, Bill Neufeld and Al White has added power and experience to the line-up and this trio will break up many a ball game before the season is over.

The locals started early in the opener and garnered three runs in the second on singles by White, Hilton and Niles and walks to VanZant, Giles and Trivett. Three more runs were scored in the third on hits by Cain, Gibney and Hilton and an error by Saul.

Richmond Hill's first run was scored in this inning on a walk to Stong and Mably's long double. Three more tallies crossed the plate in the fifth on successive hits by Cain, VanZant and Niles and a walk to "Pee

Wes Niles pitched a good steady game for the winners with Cain, VanZant and Hilton doing the heavy stick work. "Honeymoon" Giles starred in the field, with Bennett and Proctor being best for Richmond Hill.

Yonge Bottleneck Disgrace Ontario Government Told

AURORANS SECURE PASS-AGE OF RESOLUTION. BY NEWMARKET COUNCIL

A resolution terming the bottleneck on Yonge St. between Richmond Hill and Thornhill a "disgrace" and asking the provincial department of highways to remedy this "deplorable condition" was passed by Newmarket town council on Monday evening.

This action was taken following the appearance of a delegation representing the Aurora board of trade and the newly formed Yonge St. Improvement Association. Those present were Reeve J. A. Knowles of Aurora, Councillor Dr. E. J. Henderson and A. M. Kirkwood, retired bank manager.

Reeve Knowles described conditions on Yonge St. Mr. Kirkwood invited the Newmarket councillors to attend a meeting of the association in Aurora next Monday evening.

WHAT ROYALTY SAW

During their tour of western Canada their majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth must have been impressed with the great wide thoroughfares through western cities. We do not know what engineers could have been thinking when they laid out the wide streets of Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton. They could not have foreseen the remarkable increase in motor-cars. Winnipeg was laid out before the invention of the motor-car, we suppose, and when the cities farther west were laid out there were probably a few motor-cars but they were not of a kind or quality to suggest any tremendous increase in their numbers.

Canada's Greatness

All we can think is that these engineers must have dreamed a dream. They had vision. They foresaw great development. They realized that (Earl Baldwin quoting Lady Tweedsmuir) "if we could turn this dominion over, using the Maritime provinces as a hinge, Canada would stretch across the intervening Atlantic and cover the British Isles, France, Germany, and a part of Russia." They foresaw the townships which they were laying out developing into great cities. It was not for them to know which townships would develop most quickly, and many a western "city" is but a prairie town with half a dozen grain elevators for a skyline. The important fact is that they so laid out the townships that did grow that they will continue to grow without too many growing pains.

"Where There Is No Vision . . ."

A town laid out as Newmarket is cannot continue to grow without growing pains. It is up to us, its present citizens, to do what we can to alleviate those pains. The longer we wait the more it will cost us. In what way do our town streets fail to measure up to the requirement of the motor-car age? In the first place, there are not sufficient parking facilities in proximity to the stores. In the second place, the principal Main St. shopping area is so congested that many people prefer not to drive on Main St. during shopping hours. In the third place, lack of an adequate thoroughfare for through traffic deprives the town of advertising, good-will, and business, and constitutes a menace to the safety of children and pedestrians.

Royal Roads for Newmarket

At the cost of a few signs and a little supervision, the town could provide lots of parking space near the stores. At the cost of a survey the town could by-law set new wide boundaries for Main St. and prepare the way for a wide street in the future (say, for the next royal visit). The town can choose between Huron St. (avoiding the business section by a wide margin) as the through highway and some new route a good deal more attractive than any that exists now. Once a pavement is laid on Huron St. Newmarket will never see the thousands of cars which now pass painfully through this town every summer. It seems to us foolish to let this business skirt the town.

Radial Right-of-Way Still There

There are other possibilities. The suggestion was once pushed that the town should endeavor to have the old radial right-of-way from Yonge St. to Huron St. made into a highway. The expense would be great and wouldn't be justified at the present time, but there is no time like the present to make plans for the future. The town could acquire part of the radial right-of-way that lies within the town and probably persuade the county to acquire the part lying between the town and Yonge St. The time would inevitably come when this ideal approach to Newmarket would be justified and it would be possible for town and county to go ahead. Wouldn't an advertisement at Mulock's corners, "Newmarket, gateway to Lake Simcoe and Haliburton playgrounds," look splendid?

Little Expense Involved

These are not suggestions for spending money, but for saving money, and saving future money, and therefore they may not appeal strongly. Improvements are often measured by how much they cost, but sometimes least expensive improvements are the greatest. It didn't cost any more to make the streets of western Canada cities wider, but the engineers who planned those prairie towns builded better than they knew.

A STORY TO TELL

Newmarket has a story to tell. And when you have a story to tell, the thing to do is to tell it. If it is a good story the public will listen. What is Newmarket's story? It is one that should appeal to every individual or firm thinking of establishing a factory. Newmarket is a well governed town, with a decreasing debenture debt, a decreasing tax rate, excellent schools, a fair proportion of pavements and sidewalks, cheap water, cheap power, plenty of the highest class of labor, and is situated within Canada's richest market (an area within 100 miles radius of Toronto).

Obtaining New Industries

Let's tell that story. A small amount of money should be used each year to reach business men through business periodicals with this story. There are new industries starting up all the time. There are firms expanding, moving, looking for a place more suited to their needs. Let's tell them about Newmarket.

Markets Increase

An idea of the expansion of the Ontario market, and the expansion of Ontario industry, is given by figures from the annual report of the Ontario department of municipal affairs. Ontario's population in 1937 is given as 3,711,000. In the ten years from 1927 to 1937 city population increased 21 per cent, town and village population increased six per cent and township population increased ten per cent. The increase in the entire population was about 15 per cent. And Newmarket, with a story of reduced taxation to tell, is situated right in the heart of this expansion. What an opportunity!

WHERE SOME OF MONEY GOES

It is well known that the Hepburn government, which came into power on an economy program, is spending more money than its predecessor. How is the additional money being spent? One way of which we approve is the mill and a half rebate to municipalities to lighten the burden on real estate. Another item, and it must be a considerable item, which seems to us a good expenditure is the elaborate statistical report of the department of municipal affairs. This report gives detailed statistics about every municipality in the province.

Danger Signs

The value of the report depends on it being used by municipal councils and officials. By comparing their own municipality with other municipalities, councils should be able to see where their municipality is weak financially, and how to avoid going on the rocks which sank many a municipality during the depression years. The recently published report for 1937 gives even more information than its predecessors. (Incidentally, the report has greatly increased the work of municipal clerks and treasurers.)

ALMOST INCREDIBLE

One-half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives. A very slight difference in means separates most people from the very poorest people in their community. In the city of Toronto 12 per cent of the population was on relief in March. That would be 80,000 people, yet the rest of the population was able to go about its daily routine almost unconscious of this tremendous number of people forced to accept public assistance. People take relief for granted. Such figures no longer startle them. They do not wonder whether the people on relief get enough to eat or enough to wear or what the effect is on their morale. An English doctor, Sir John Orr, speaking in Toronto recently, said that relief allowances in this province are not sufficient to maintain good health. According to the Toronto Star, health experts say that 25 per cent better than the Campbell report is still insufficient. The Star, in commenting on a report to Toronto board of control that shortening the stay of indigent patients in hospitals by providing convalescent homes will not reduce the city's indigent hospital bill, because there is such a long waiting-list of indigents needing hospital care (800 persons) ready to fill beds as fast as they are emptied, says: "There is a relationship between the low relief food rations of these past years and the mounting sickness costs. There is, says Dr. Haven Emerson, a connection between reduced public health budgets and higher hospitalization costs. There is a direct connection between low wages and sickness costs. The U. S. health survey found 87 per cent more chronic sickness among families on relief and low wages than among those who have annual incomes of $3,000 or more. There is a relationship between the absence of health insurance and high sickness rates."

Penny Wise, Pound Foolish

Yet we do nothing. Our governments do nothing, and the rest of us do nothing. We have become used to these deplorable conditions. The people at the bottom of the ladder too seem to have become used to conditions as well, and make no effective protest. A few, it is true, make their protest by becoming communists. A sad part of it is that while it seems cheaper for the taxpayer to pay low relief scales, and to do without employment and health insurance schemes, medical authorities and social workers are telling us that it is expensive economy.

HIS NAME IS DANTE FIORELLO

An interesting piece of news from the United States is that the Pulitzer prize scholarship of $1,500 has been won by an American-born son of Italian immigrant parents, and that the piece of music that won the prize was his protest against the squalor of his slum life. He began this winning symphony when he was 15 years old. He is now 20, and will go abroad to study. If he had been a poor little rich boy, we wonder if he would ever have found the time to compose a masterpiece. Even poverty may have compensations.

WE ADMIRE BUT DISAGREE

Senator Arthur Meighen's stand on the railway question cannot fail to attract attention. The Conservative senate leader stands for railway unification, and we believe, under private ownership. At the same time his chief, Hon. Dr. R. J. Manion, Conservative leader in the commons, stands for continued competition. Our first feeling is that Mr. Meighen isn't being fair to his leader. He had several chances to win power for the Conservatives, during the twenties, and failed. Now it is Dr. Manion's turn, but he won't have half a chance if Mr. Meighen is going to throw a monkey-wrench. Aside from that, we are of the opinion that Mr. Meighen's is an honest and courageous opinion. Maybe Dr. Manion agrees with him privately. He may even approve of Mr. Meighen taking this stand, as a political manoeuvre which will get the votes of both the ayes and the nays. We agree with Mr. Meighen that the railways should be unified, but not under private control. The public should be the majority shareholder in the unified railway. The need for rail competition is gone, for there is competition on the highways and in the air, but there is still a need for national railways which will perform certain public services without profit. Perhaps under unification some lines would pay sufficiently well to carry those that would not pay, but the fact remains that certain lines are essential to the national well-being, whether they pay or not.

SOME BIRD BABIES GO HUNGRY

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"It's a windy day, all right," said the Ovenbird lady to her friend, the Robin. "I suppose we wouldn't notice it if we lived back inland a bit, but here in the woods at the edge of the lake, one can hardly hear one's own song."

"I've been giving my call, 'Teacher, teacher, teacher, teacher,' every once in a while," the little bird continued. "But nobody can hear even my loud call, against that wind. The Ovenbirds are little thrush-like birds, brownish-green, with white throat and underparts, streaked with brown, and with a little patch of dull gold on their heads."

"Is that all you've got to worry about?" asked the Robin. "I've got a real worry today."

"What is that?" inquired the Ovenbird.

"I built my nest up in a corner inside the little back porch of a summer cottage, and I've a big family in that nest," the Robin told her. "I thought that we'd be away from there before the family came up for the summer, but unfortunately they came up for the weekend, just when we didn't want them."

"I suppose it is rather awkward," said the Ovenbird sympathetically.

"Awkward—I should say it is!" spluttered the Robin. "The back door is right under our noses, and the way those folks bang in and out of that door is dreadful. Every time they do, I get nervous and leave the nest—and they hang around so much that I don't feed those clamoring babies of mine—poor dears."

"Why, I hope you didn't let them starve," gasped the Ovenbird.

"Not quite," said the Robin. "But things were getting pretty serious by the middle of this morning. Finally the cottagers all went off for a walk and I hustled as much food to the children as I could. Another serious thing was that it was so cold. The poor babies were chilled through and I had to sit on the nest as much as possible to get them warm."

"Then when the family returned at noon," the Robin continued with a deep sigh, "it almost caused one of my babies to choke to death."

"How?" inquired the Ovenbird curiously.

"Well, I had just captured a great big dragon fly, and had taken it to the nest to divide up among the children," explained the Robin. "I had given one child a big bite, and was just going to pull the rest of the big thing out of its mouth and give some to the next one, when along came the folks from their walk and I rushed off without thinking, leaving that one baby with the head and wings of the dragon fly stuffed down its throat and the great long body sticking out of its bill an inch or more."

"Why, the poor little Robin," exclaimed the Ovenbird. "I should think it would choke. Whatever happened?"

"He struggled and almost choked for two or three minutes," said the Robin, "and then I screwed up enough courage to go back and help him."

"I'm certainly glad you conquered your fears that much," said the Ovenbird. "Listen to that Black-billed Cuckoo giving that funny, discordant call of his," she added suddenly, trying to divert the Robin from her troubles. "The wind must be dying down."

"I have been listening to him," said the Robin, "and I also saw a lovely Scarlet Tanager yesterday. However, my worrying morning put everything else out of my mind."

"I see the people haven't gone yet," said the Ovenbird.

"No, but they're going," said the Robin. "They are packing up now. And you can be sure I'll try to get my family out and flying about as quickly as I can, because they'll be back. I only hope none of my children have caught their death of cold today, in that high wind, while I haven't been there to keep them warm—not to mention just about starving to death."

"Oh, I'm sure it isn't as bad as that," said the Ovenbird. "Everything will be all right. Well, I must go and find my husband. I haven't had such a long gossip for some time."

"If she wouldn't be so nervous and jumpy, the poor babies wouldn't have been neglected," the Ovenbird said to herself as she flew off.

Reeve Knowles' speech of welcome made the Institute feel that their presence was welcome in Aurora. He also begged the Institutes to use their influence to further any scheme of reforestation which may be brought forward in their jurisdiction.

On the program also was a very lovely vocal solo, "Morning," sung by Mrs. Lambert Wilson of Aurora, and enjoyed by everybody, and a delightful piano solo by an Aurora school girl—I'm sorry I did not get her name.

These little interludes are restful and charming and everyone would enjoy more of them if the strenuous business of the program was not so exacting. But from that program, everyone carried away something worth-while.

After a triumphal tour of western Canada, King George and Queen Elizabeth returned to Ontario this week where they were greeted with wild enthusiasm by many thousands of Ontarians. HOLSTEIN BREEDERS' PICNIC AT WOODBRIDGE

The annual picnic of the York County Holstein club was held on Saturday last at Elm Park, Woodbridge, with about 400 attending.

During the lunch hour, Hugh Colson, editor of the Holstein Journal, was called upon to introduce the guest speaker, Hon. Geo. S. Henry. Mr. Colson pointed out the contribution Mr. Henry has made to the development of the breed in York County. Mr. Henry referred to the early breeders of the Holstein, mentioning in particular R. F. Hicks of Newtonbrook, a former president of the club and a past president of the Canadian Holstein Association. The speaker urged members not to sacrifice type or milk production in an endeavour to build up high testing herds. He also reminded all breeders that the county club is carrying on a program for their benefit, and it was only fair that they should support the club in every way possible.

Jos. Darlington, Todmorden, field salesman of the club, reported briefly on the work he is doing and emphasized the value of the blood test in building up a herd or securing a market for surplus stock.

Geo. W. Henry, president of the club, announced that arrangements have been completed for the holding of a "Black and White" show in co-operation with Markham Fair. This will be held on the Friday and all animals will secure equal prize money, some of the larger classes having ten prizes. Both Mr. Darlington and the past president, S. B. Watson, of Agincourt, solicited support of this event, tried out successfully last year at Port Perry and Roseneath.

A judging competition, sports of various kinds and a milking contest contributed to the program.

President Geo. W. Henry of Todmorden lacked the assistance of his first vice-president, Roy Barker of Woodbridge, who was indisposed, but was ably supported by Secretary E. F. Ramsey of Sharon, who reports a fine response to the appeal for membership.

POLICE COURT LICENSE SUSPENDED DROVE WITHOUT IT

On a charge of driving while his license was suspended David Williams, Aurora, was fined $25 and costs, or ten days, by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe in police court here on Tuesday.

For failing to produce his driver's license when stopped in Newmarket by a constable ten days after the first offence, Williams was fined an additional $5, or five days. Williams pleaded guilty to both charges. Williams was convicted on a reckless driving charge in March, 1938, and his driver's license has not been renewed.

Constable Fisher Dunham, Aurora, stated that he followed Williams' car and when the car stopped he questioned Williams and found he had no license, and later he found that Williams' license had been suspended.

"You were warned once before by me about driving when you were convicted on a reckless driving charge," Magistrate Woodliffe told Williams. "You're very lucky the first charge of driving while your license was suspended was laid under the highway traffic act and not the criminal code or you would have received a more severe penalty."

"If there is any recurrence of this youth driving while his license is suspended, book the charge under the criminal code," Magistrate Woodliffe told Constable Dunham.

Constable Kenneth Mount, Newmarket, stated that he found Williams in Newmarket on June 3 without a driver's license.

"You don't seem to have much respect for the law, do you?" Magistrate Woodliffe asked Williams as he meted out the $5 fine on the second charge.

On a charge of catching black bass out of season Thomas Donnelly, Toronto, was fined $10 and costs.

Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C., stated that Donnelly could not be present at the court but that he stated on Monday he wished to plead guilty to the charge.

"He told me he thought one of the fish was a carp," Mr. Mathews stated.

"Donnelly had two black bass when I saw him and he had no lawful excuse except that he didn't know what they were," stated Game Warden Ernest Prosser.

On a charge of possessing one pike fish in the closed season, Leo Makela, Toronto, was fined $10 and costs.

Game Warden Watson stated that as he was patrolling along the bridge near Bradford he saw Makela with the pike.

On a charge of discharging an air-gun from an auto contrary to the game and fisheries act, David Shadwick, Toronto, was fined $10 and costs.

Game Warden Ernest Prosser testified that Shadwick and his brother were driving around in the park at Holland Landing. Shadwick was in the back seat while his brother was driving and he shot off a pump air-gun through the back window, Mr. Prosser stated.

"I was under the impression that the gun was a toy and that it was harmless," stated Shadwick. "I picked up the gun in the back seat and just fired one shot."

"You are not allowed to carry a loaded air-gun in a car," Magistrate Woodliffe told Shadwick.

Bail of $100 was renewed for William Abbs, Ballantrae, who is charged with being a vagrant in Holland Landing. The charge was adjourned one week.

Charles Stephenson, Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h., $9 and costs, charge laid by Constable K. Mount, Newmarket.

Jean Brazier, Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h., $9 and costs, charge laid by Constable Mount.

H. O. Marshall, Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h., $9 and costs, charge laid by Constable Mount.

Irene Cook, Toronto, speeding, 45 m.p.h., $9 and costs, charge laid by Constable J. Sloss, Newmarket.

Kenneth White, Toronto, speeding, $7 and costs, charge laid by Constable F. Dunham, Aurora.

Way Sagless Spring Co., Toronto, speeding, $7 and costs, charge laid by Constable Dunham.

Blake J. Gilmore, Toronto, speeding, $5 and costs, charge laid by Constable Dunham.

Thos. G. Picton, Camp Borden, speeding, $9 and costs, charge laid by Constable Dunham.

John B. Robinson, Toronto, fail to produce an operator's license, $3 and costs, charge laid by County Constable R. Watt.

After pleading guilty to two charges of theft, a 19-year-old girl was remanded one week for sentence in the custody of the Toronto Salvation Army Girls' Home.

During the period from December, 1938, to May 27, 1939, the girl admitted taking $202 in money from the store of S. R. Goodwin, Holland Landing, and she also admitted taking several articles from W. J. Patterson's drug-store, Newmarket.

"In May I received a complaint from Mr. Goodwin and he said that there had been money missing from his till but that he didn't know how much or who had been taking it," testified County Constable R. Watt. "I questioned the accused and she admitted being in the store. Entrance was made by the back door into the store and trips were made twice weekly by the accused to the till. She went into the store when the proprietor had gone out and took the money."

"Most of the money taken was used for clothing and jewellery but we recovered $32.50 in money and later her father found a $20 bill and gave it to Mr. Goodwin. She gave me a statement after she was taken into custody. A lot of clothes were found in her bedroom and on checking the stores in Newmarket I found the majority were bought here. The accused told us the price of the clothes and they cost about $96. She said they were all bought with stolen money."

"An alarm clock, thermometer, and an autograph book were identified by Mr. Patterson as having been taken from his store," continued Constable Watt. "The accused has never been in trouble before and she assisted me in every way to clear this thing up."

"Her mother is dead and her father is an invalid," stated Mr. Mathews.

"The articles taken from Mr. Patterson's store will be given back to him and Mr. Goodwin can have the clothing if he wants it," stated Magistrate Woodliffe.

A charge of reckless driving laid against Harry Esler, Toronto, was adjourned one week for judgment.

David Walker, Toronto, was defence counsel. Esler pleaded not guilty to the charge.

"I was driving my motor-cycle south in Sutton at about 11.45 p.m. standard time," testified Lawrence Pollock, Sutton, in answer to the questioning of Mr. Mathews. "The road was dry, there was no much traffic, and my speed was around 30 m.p.h. I couldn't see the speedometer, as the dashlight was on, but my other lights were on."

"As I got nearly to the road leading into the creamery I saw a northbound car approaching at about the same rate of speed as I was. Each of us was about one-eighth of a mile away from Loneragan's driveway when I first saw the car. When the car got nearly opposite me the driver suddenly made a left-hand turn into Loneragan's driveway. The car started into the driveway but the full length of it was projecting on the highway and it covered three-quarters of the road. The car was a 1936 Dodge."

"I swerved to the east to miss the car but the side-car of my motor-cycle collided with the right rear bumper of the car. I forget what happened after that, as I was thrown into the air and knocked out cold. I landed on the road. I received a slight concussion and had to have six stitches in my head."

"Did the driver of the car make any motion before he turned?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"If he did, I didn't see it," answered Mr. Pollock.

"Did the car have lights on?" "Yes."

"How wide is the road?" asked Mr. Walker, defence counsel.

"It is 20 feet wide," answered Mr. Pollock.

"How long was the car across the road before you hit it?" "Only an instant."

"The car is 16 feet long, so you tried to get around it on four feet of pavement?" "Yes."

"From the time you saw him turn what did you do?" "I applied my brakes."

"When you came to, where was your motor-cycle?" "I saw it was hooked on the back bumper of the car."

"Do you remember making a statement at the doctor's office that your speed must have been 50 m.p.h.?" "No."

"Was the car moving at the time you struck it?" asked Magistrate Woodliffe. "Yes," answered Mr. Pollock.

Frank Shannon, who works in the Sutton Creamery, testified that he heard the squeak of brakes and the noise of a collision, so he and another chap ran out of the creamery. "Pollock was lying in the centre of the road when I saw him first and when I got over to him two men were helping him up," stated Mr. Shannon.

"The blood was running down his neck from a cut in his head, and I said he had better be taken to a doctor. I noticed a narrow skid mark on the road left by the motor-cycle."

"Isn't it a fact that the car was in the driveway and clear of the road?" asked Mr. Walker.

"Absolutely no," answered Mr. Shannon.

Ronald Williams stated that he ran out to the road with Mr. Shannon after the accident occurred. He had a lot of trouble getting the side car of the motor-cycle off the car, as they were locked together, Mr. Williams stated.

Richard Loneragan stated that he was in bed when he saw car lights flash on the wall and shortly after that he heard the crash.

Constable Wm. Burke, Sutton, who investigated the accident, stated that the battery on the motor-cycle was broken in the impact and that there was a scum on the back fender of the Esler car.

The magistrate then called for defence witnesses.

James Russell, Toronto, testified that he was with Esler and that they had been paying a visit to a lodge in Sutton. On their way home Esler got on the wrong road, so he turned into Loneragan's driveway to turn around and he was

STRONG LITTLE FELLOWS

Just a year ago, William Woods, of Agincourt, Ont., bought 250 Bray chicks. They lived and grew "like sixty." The cockerels turned out real meat birds, the pullets real layers of big eggs. Mr. Woods was so pleased with the way they did that he wrote us the following letter:

The cockerels were marketed off at 4 to 5 months old, on an average of 6½ lbs., or 754 lbs. dressed—netting me $188.50. Cost of chicks and feed to that time was $155.75, giving me a good profit and 108 pullets.

"I had to raise these chicks 'hill billy' style, if you know what I mean, as I have no brooder house or brooder stove. But they are such wonderful strong little fellows that if they are given half a chance and proper feed they come right along. I cannot speak too highly of Bray chicks."

"Wonderful strong little fellows." Good doors, fast growers, early layers of large eggs . . . the kind of birds that, given half a chance and proper feed, come right along. The later it gets, the more you need in YOUR chicks these qualities which have made Bray chicks famous . . . a "household word" from Winnipeg to Halifax.

Better get in touch with us about your chick requirements, right away.

In Memoriam

Boden—In loving memory of a loving husband and father, Thos. Boden, who passed away June 5, 1938.

We watched him suffer day by day. It caused us bitter grief To see him slowly pass away, and could not give relief.

His weary hours and days of pain, his troubled nights are past, And in our aching hearts we know, he has found sweet rest at last.

'Tis sweet to know we will meet again, where parting is no more.

And our dear one we loved so well, has only gone before. God knows how much we miss him, He counts the tears we shed, And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps, your dear one is not dead."

Some day, sometime, my eyes shall see, the face we loved so well. Some day, sometime, his hand we'll clasp, and never say farewell. Sadly missed by wife and family.

Jardine—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Charlotte Isobel Riddell, who passed away June 12, 1939, in her 66th year. In our hearts your memory lingers.

Sweetly tender, fond and true, There is not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you. Husband and Children.

Jardine—In loving memory of a dear sister and aunt, Charlotte Isobel Riddell, who departed from this life June 12, 1939.

You are not forgotten sister, Nor ever will you be, As long as life and memory lasts, We will remember thee, Brothers, Sister, Nephew and Nieces.

Metzgar—In loving memory of my dear mother, Alfretha Metzgar, who passed away June 10, 1937. Her memory is a dear today. As in the hour she passed away. Sadly missed by Anna.

Sheridan—In loving remembrance of Charles Sheridan, who departed from this life to be with Jesus, June 12, 1938. Calm and peaceful he is sleeping. Sweetest rest that follows pain. We, who loved him, sadly miss him.

But trust in God to meet again. Ever remembered by his son and daughter-in-law, Carm and Helen.

HAD ONLY GARAGE

IN NORTHERN YORK

Operator of the first garage between Toronto and Barrie, and for many years the only garage, Charles Herbert Edward Thompson died on Friday in his 47th year.

"Charlie" Thompson was a chap that everybody just naturally liked, and through his illness of the last five or six years, during which he was sometimes able to work and sometimes wasn't, he had the sympathy of a great host of friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Thompson was also the first examiner for this district under the Motor Vehicles Act and held this office until a few months ago. He was always obliging about giving examinations at inconvenient hours for himself for the convenience of town and out-of-town people.

Born in Newmarket, he grew up here and lived here with the exception of two years in Toronto, when he was engaged in a mechanical dentistry laboratory.

Interested in cars from the time they first began to appear, he started tinkering with cars when he left school and soon started a garage of his own.

He was the son of Elizabeth Gardner and Charles A. Thompson. On June 4, 1913, he was married to Beatrice (Hattie) Miner.

His only surviving relatives are his wife and his brother, George H. Thompson, Newmarket machine shop proprietor.

He was a member of St. Paul's Anglican church. Rev. A. J. Patterson conducted the service at the residence, 112 Prospect St., and at Newmarket cemetery on Monday.

An extraordinary number of flowers were sent to the home and indicated how wide was his circle of friendship.

Palbearers were A. J. Davis, W. C. Lundy, J. E. Carr, Toronto, R. M. Brimston, Toronto, Laurie Goldsmith and George Stark.

WAS ALL HIS LIFE

TEMPERANCE WORKER

At one time The Era's Kettleby correspondent, Wakefield Gersham Proctor died on Monday in his 55th year at York county hospital, where he had been removed two weeks before from the home of his son, Howard Proctor, 78 Prospect St.

Mr. Proctor was an enthusiastic temperance man. Born Nov. 8, 1851, in King township, the son of Elizabeth Lloyd and Gersham Proctor, he joined the Kettleby division of the Sons of Temperance when he was 13. He was 13 times worthy patriarch of the lodge.

He married Minerva Stokes on June 11, 1878. When they moved to Newmarket in 1909, the Kettleby temperance lodge presented him with a farewell greeting and an honorary membership.

He had spent 17 years in Kettleby at woodworking. In October 1918 he was appointed caretaker of the Newmarket post office, which had been first occupied in 1915. In 1929 he was superannuated and moved to the city of Toronto, where he lived a couple of years. In recent years he lived with his son in Newmarket.

One of seven brothers and sisters, the only surviving member of the family is a sister, (Lavilla) Mrs. Wakefield Howard, Aurora. There also survive three sons, Howard, Newmarket, Gersham and William, Toronto, and two grandsons and one granddaughter.

Rev. T. T. Fitchney conducted the funeral service on Wednesday afternoon. Palbearers were Morley Proctor, Carl Proctor, Fred Bogart, all of Kettleby, W. J. Geer, Oscar Ramsden and F. A. Lundy, all of Newmarket.

REV. ARTHUR GREER

ACCEPTS PASTORATE

Rev. Arthur Greer, assistant pastor at Knox Presbyterian church, Toronto, has accepted a call to the Christian Congregational church. Mr. Greer will take over the pastorate on Sept. 1. Mr. Greer is well-known locally.

At a congregational meeting last Sunday morning, it was unanimously agreed to invite Mr. Greer to occupy the pulpit.

A Winnipeg boy, J. Guberman, set a new shot put record of 38 feet 1½ inches.

V. Wood's silver team with 198 points defeated J. Robinson's blue team. There was a large attendance of parents and friends for this annual event.

GIVES AWAY WATCHES

All names of Newmarket high school students received by today go on the circumference of a giant Gruen watch in Wainman's window. Town Billed $877 -- Legal Expense In Whitmore Case

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT NOT REVEALED; BILL TO BE "CHECKED"

Deploping that one of the first things with which he must deal with as mayor should be a bill for $800, Mayor J. M. Walton asked Lorne Lee, town solicitor, to introduce a statement from George Walsh, who for some time has been retained as counsel in the "Whitmore case."

Several years ago Mr. Whitmore, who has a farm on Yonge St., north of Aurora, brought two suits against the town and tannery. In one it was claimed that he had suffered damages to his cattle because of the contents of the "tannery creek" and in the other suit he claimed that the contents of the creek, for which the town and tannery were responsible, had made it a nuisance.

While no mention was made at Saturday's council meeting of what settlement had been made,

MAKES SURE TOWN PAY CHEQUES ARE SIGNED

The new mayor is not going to have town employees go without their pay cheques a second time this year if he can help it. Saturday's council meeting showed.

"I want to make sure that town officers will not be inconvenienced by my absence," said Mayor J. M. Walton, explaining that he would be away on a trip to Washington this week.

"There are the pay cheques to be signed next Saturday," Cedric Willis, town clerk, stated.

"I will arrange with you after the meeting for the signing of those cheques," the mayor promised.

The account will be passed at a later meeting, it was decided, when inquiry has been made into it.

Possibility Of Increasing Activity In Factory Seen

DEHYDRATION EXECUTIVES WRITE COUNCIL FOR PROPERTY DEED

One of the most important communications received by the town council this year was read on Saturday night, and under the direction of Mayor J. M. Walton, prompt and adequate action was planned concerning it.

The letter was from Dehydrating Processes Limited, the firm that has taken over the "old match factory" by the railway tracks. The firm, which has renovated the old factory building and which had been conducting experimental work there last fall, is ready to take another step, the letter disclosed.

Evidently the firm is now in a position to do more, and the letter said, in effect, that they were ready to go into full swing. Before doing so they wished to know if the deed to the factory building were available.

The deed to the place, it was understood when the firm first located here, would go into the possession of the firm if and when they had fulfilled certain obligations in the way of renovating the building and reaching a certain stage in their business.

"The company expects to be in a position shortly to proceed with full operations," the letter said in part. "The company has fulfilled its agreement and would appreciate your giving us the deed."

"Have they carried out their agreement?" asked Councillor C. E. Sparks.

"That is a question of fact, rather than a question of law," Town Solicitor L. C. Lee stated.

MORE PROMPTNESS, LESS SMOKING, IS NEW MAYOR'S REQUEST TO COUNCILLORS

"I suggest that the item of business that comes at 11 o'clock be the last one at night for the council," said Councillor Dr. E. J. Henderson in the council chambers on Saturday evening.

"I would suggest we start on time," said Mayor J. M. Walton. "I think we should be able to stop at 10 o'clock."

"We will work better if we do not smoke," the mayor contended. "If you want to smoke, we will stop for ten minutes."

"Would it be presuming to bring in chocolate bars?" asked Councillor C. E. Sparks. "One of our councillors has been very good in providing these."

The mayor suggested that the Aurora Dairy might provide ice cream.

The council adjourned shortly after nine o'clock, and will meet again on Tuesday, June 13.

SEEK LAW TO EXILE GOAT FROM AURORA

"Has anybody taken any steps concerning a goat that was causing a smell?" Councillor John Stuart asked the council on Saturday night.

"The medical officer of health has said that the pen is clean, and that, unless there is a by-law affecting the goat, he does not know of anything further to be done," the clerk stated.

"We should look up the provincial statutes," Mr. Stuart said, stating that he thought there was a ruling governing the keeping of pigs, and that perhaps it might apply to other domestic animals.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED SATURDAY; WERE WED IN ENGLAND

Married in Enderby Methodist church, Leicestershire, England, 25 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodson celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding quietly at their home on Macmillan Ave., on Saturday. They were married by an uncle of the bride, who was, before her marriage, Edith Duncan.

Shortly after their marriage, the Great War broke out, and Mr. Dodson enlisted. "Not very pleasant," is Mr. Dodson's description of the circumstance of leaving his wife soon after his marriage. Mr. Dodson is 40 and looks five years younger. Mrs. Dodson is "not quite so old."

The couple came to this country in 1920, and after nine months in Galt, and three months in Toronto, they moved to Aurora. Since their arrival here, Mr. Dodson has worked in the Sisman shoe factory and "it's a great time to work for, too," he says.

They have one daughter, Joan, who was 17 years of age on Monday.

Mr. Dodson spends a great deal of his spare time with his flowers and received an "Order of Merit" from the provincial government last year in recognition of his splendid work with the Aurora Horticultural Society. He took occasion to remind the reporter that the Iris show was being held in the town hall on Saturday afternoon, and that it would probably be followed by the peony show a week later.

Era printing is attractive.

POLLS 434 VOTES

Although he ran second in the recent mayoralty race, Howard J. Morton received a commendably high number of votes, in an election that saw an unusually large number of Aurora citizens enter the polling booths.

Here's the story when the votes were counted:

	Walton	Morton
Ward 1	115	82
Ward 2	141	101
Ward 3	122	134
Ward 4	123	95
Ward 5	91	82
Totals	592	434

"Congratulations on your election," said Mr. Morton to Mayor Walton when he had driven to the mayor's home as soon as the result was known.

"You made a very fine run," Mayor Walton replied.

Later, the defeated candidate gave a lesson in gracious and sportsmanlike losing by mounting a truck and touring the town, microphone in hand, to congratulate the new mayor and to thank the 434 voters who had supported him at the polls.

"I'm delighted to extend every congratulation to Mr. Walton as the new mayor of Aurora," said Mr. Morton. "I congratulate, too, the people of Aurora on their interest in municipal affairs, as evidenced by the large vote polled in this election."

"I want to thank the surprisingly large number of people who turned out to support me," Mr. Morton continued. "If anyone had told me a year ago that I would merit such support, I would not have believed them."

"This has been your battle that I've been fighting, and your support has given me every encouragement to keep on fighting for you," Mr. Morton said. "Three weeks ago I promised this town a mayor and tonight my first election promise has been fulfilled."

Mayor Walton, who on six other occasions had been honored with the title of mayor, was the recipient of many congratulations on Friday evening, and cordially expressed his appreciation of support given him.

Expressing the wish that no inconvenience be caused by a previously-arranged trip to Washington this week, Aurora's new mayor summoned council to a meeting on Saturday night, where immediate business was dealt with.

The election campaign, which many expected would be unusually quiet, turned out to be the opposite of that. It began early in the week as a contest between a well-known man, long a resident of Aurora, and with long municipal experience—a man of whom little was known comparatively a newcomer to town, with no previous experience in council.

Mr. Morton began a personal canvass early in the week, however, and by Monday night the supporters of Mr. Walton were organized. Giving themselves the title of "the citizens' committee," the four largest employers of labor, W. J. Sisman, W. A. Johnston, A. M. Brydon and W. J. Bowser, together with Luke Holman and R. W. Coleman, issued a handbill in which they, together with members of the town council, asked for support for Mr. Walton.

During the election these men were responsible for a large share in "getting out the vote" by means of automobiles, and their efforts, combined with those of Mr. Morton, who also had a number of cars, resulted in a very large vote being recorded.

J. M. Walton Wins Well; H. J. Morton Loses Well

TOWN HAS BRISK FINISH TO MAYORALTY ELECTION CAMPAIGN

One thousand and twenty-six voters journeyed to the polls on Friday to state their preference for mayor as between J. M. Walton and H. J. Morton. And a surprising number of the voters made the journey by automobile, a testimonial to the active electioneering of both parties.

Here's the story when the votes were counted:

	Walton	Morton
Ward 1	115	82
Ward 2	141	101
Ward 3	122	134
Ward 4	123	95
Ward 5	91	82
Totals	592	434

"Congratulations on your election," said Mr. Morton to Mayor Walton when he had driven to the mayor's home as soon as the result was known.

"You made a very fine run," Mayor Walton replied.

Later, the defeated candidate gave a lesson in gracious and sportsmanlike losing by mounting a truck and touring the town, microphone in hand, to congratulate the new mayor and to thank the 434 voters who had supported him at the polls.

"I'm delighted to extend every congratulation to Mr. Walton as the new mayor of Aurora," said Mr. Morton. "I congratulate, too, the people of Aurora on their interest in municipal affairs, as evidenced by the large vote polled in this election."

"I want to thank the surprisingly large number of people who turned out to support me," Mr. Morton continued. "If anyone had told me a year ago that I would merit such support, I would not have believed them."

"This has been your battle that I've been fighting, and your support has given me every encouragement to keep on fighting for you," Mr. Morton said. "Three weeks ago I promised this town a mayor and tonight my first election promise has been fulfilled."

Mayor Walton, who on six other occasions had been honored

with the title of mayor, was the recipient of many congratulations on Friday evening, and cordially expressed his appreciation of support given him.

Expressing the wish that no inconvenience be caused by a previously-arranged trip to Washington this week, Aurora's new mayor summoned council to a meeting on Saturday night, where immediate business was dealt with.

The election campaign, which many expected would be unusually quiet, turned out to be the opposite of that. It began early in the week as a contest between a well-known man, long a resident of Aurora, and with long municipal experience—a man of whom little was known comparatively a newcomer to town, with no previous experience in council.

Mr. Morton began a personal canvass early in the week, however, and by Monday night the supporters of Mr. Walton were organized. The group, which was accompanied by Miss M. Andrews, librarian, returned about one o'clock to escape the threatened rain storm, and all report a good time.

ELECTED MAYOR

Jesse M. Walton now sits at the head of Aurora's council table, by virtue of a 158-vote margin over his rival in the election held on Friday of last week. It will be Mr. Walton's seventh term as mayor.

Expressing the wish that no inconvenience be caused by a previously-arranged trip to Washington this week, Aurora's new mayor summoned council to a meeting on Saturday night, where immediate business was dealt with.

PINE ORCHARD GIRL WINS SILVER SERVICE

The annual livestock judging competition of the York County Junior Farmers and Achievement Day for the York County Junior Institutions was held at Richmond Hill on Thursday, June 1, with 31 boys and 81 girls competing. Of the boys, ten were competing for the first time and about one-third of the girls were taking part in their first competition.

During the past year, groups of girls throughout the county have been carrying on a study program under the direction of local institute leaders, supervised by Miss Betty Wallace of the Institute branch, and the program on this occasion took the form of a display of the work which they had been carrying out in their various groups. The girls, who were in the "Cotton Accessories for the Bedroom" project, arranged most attractive displays of bedspreads, curtains, chair covers, waste-baskets, etc., while the girls in the "Meat in the Menu" project, arranged displays of various meat dishes. Both groups had prepared very splendid notebooks on their work.

The livestock judging competition was under the direction of W. M. Cockburn, York county agricultural representative, and ten classes of stock were judged. After the judging was completed, the boys returned to Richmond Hill to give reasons on their work to the staff of judges.

At noon, J. D. Patterson entertained all the contestants and officials to a picnic luncheon at his home, Don Head Farms. In the evening, about 125 enjoyed the annual banquet which was held in the Presbyterian church, presided over by Jerry Walker of Todmorden, county president of the Junior Farmers. WHITCHURCH VETERANS' RELIEF WORK PRAISED

A large number of veterans were present at a meeting of the Whitechurch branch of the York County Veterans' Association, held in the Vandorf Hall last Friday, for the purpose of electing officers for 1939-1940, and to receive instructions with reference to special duties allotted to members in connection with the passage of the royal train through Whitechurch on June 6.

Major Conde and Mr. Butler, from the headquarters of the York County Veterans' Association, conducted the election of officers, which resulted as follows: president, W. Card; vice-president, F. Heintzman; secretary, T. Fellows; treasurer, A. H. Jones.

Major Conde, in congratulating the new officers, commented on the fact that this branch had, under the able leadership of Ted Hollidge, made good progress during the past year, both financially and numerically, and expressed the hope that the new officers would try to equal their good work. He also reminded the members that this branch had been specially commended by a royal commission for its relief work scheme, under which plan work had been provided for a very large number of men in the winter, and which was entirely self-supporting—a very unique condition of affairs in any relief scheme, and a matter of congratulation for taxpayers.

A very successful meeting closed with the hearty singing of "God Save the King."

George A. Wilkins, popular inspector of the Oshawa branch of the Gray Coach Lines, has left that city to take up new duties in a similar capacity here.

AN ATTRACTIVE WINDOW

Is the best advertising any merchant can do. It is amazing how many people pass a given window in the course of a day or a week, but it would also be disappointing to the merchant to know how few actually see what is displayed. This number can be greatly increased by attractive window dressing, and frequent changes. Few people want to look at the same store window display a second time.

So much shopping is done by telephone, by reading advertisements, by motoring to the nearest city, that it does not do, however, to depend entirely on the advertising done in the store window. It is necessary to go into the home, where most buying decisions are made, and tell the householder there what is offered for sale. There is no better way to make the friendly, home approach than through a favorite local newspaper.

THE DAYS THAT ARE NO MORE!

HARVESTING METHODS Revolutionized

A harvest of 324 million bushels of wheat, to say nothing of the increased volume of coarse grains, and all of it brought in and threshed in 1938 without the assistance of the erstwhile army of tens of thousands of harvest help from the East in the years not so long gone by.

Thus does the mode of our lives and the methods of our callings change, keeping pace with the progress being made in the scientific engineering and industrial realms.

The evolution of the Combine to the small, compact model now made available has revolutionized harvesting, making it an easily undertaken task for the regular help of the farm. Its production at a cost to the farmer of but one-third the price of the earlier, bigger models, is an evidence of the contribution made by the implement maker to help the farmer meet the problems with which he is confronted. The lower operating costs of this machine, and the reduction it enables to be made in the cost of harvesting, saving as it does up to 15c a bushel for complete harvesting, has meant, in a great many instances, a profit instead of a loss to the farmer.

Power of course is the basis of the great mechanistic progress of agriculture and the record of attainment in making more efficient, less costly and lower operating cost models available is an achievement that cannot be beaten by any other industry. To-day's modern streamlined, high efficiency tractors make earlier models look like pre-historic monstrosities and sell for about one-half the price, costing less than half to operate.

Massey-Harris is pleased to have taken a leading part in developing machines which are destined to play so important a part in making agriculture profitable.

The advent of the combine and now the greater popularity of the small combine has meant a striking decrease in the output of binders which records show reached the height of their volume in the years just previous to the war, both in Canada and the United States. Production in the latter country dropped from 213,346 in 1914 to 31,259 in 1937, thus losing the benefits of mass production aimed in the years when the volume kept mounting.

Apart from the tremendously improved product offered in the binder of to-day, which accounts in no small way for its relative increased price over pre-war years, the fact

Many people never seem to get a good and count sheep. Often they blame it on "nerves" when it may be their kidneys.

stay in the system and sleeplessness, head-

Collings and Hodgins walked, though Ray White went out on a fly to Gibney. "Red" Rolling went to first when Niles fumbled his hit, and the bases were loaded. Buck fanned and Wilf White came through with the pay-off hit, a three-bagger that brought in Collings, Hodgins and Rolling. Bone went out on a foul fly before White could score.

Gibney, Cain and Cunningham went out in the order named for Newmarket's third inning, with nice work by Collings at second base, Rolling at short stop and Ray White at first.

Aurora fared no better, and although Wes. Heaney got to second, Shore fanned, Collings went out at first and Ray White fanned, the latter going down after knocking off about a dozen fouls.

Neufeld scored on a series of fumbles, aided by a hit by Hilton.
VanZant and Niles went out on flies, while Giles fanned.

Hodgins, young Aurora third-sacker, went to first on a centre-field hit, then to second, after Rollings and Buck went out on flies, and White hit safely to first. His slide to third brought some Newmarket protest but the base umpire called him safe. He had previously called Niles safe when the latter walked into the ball, coming into third standing up, so the honors were actually fairly even.

Hodgins finally scored, whittling down Newmarket's lead to 5-4. Wilf White reached second when Bone was walked, but Heaney went out on a fly to end further scoring.

Gibney, of Newmarket, got as far as third base in the fifth inning, but Trivett, Cain and Cunningham went out promptly.

Aurora started off on its hit
Cain but fast work by Catcher Buck put out Cunningham as he tried to come home.

VanZant walked, Hilton got to first on a hit and fumbling of a hit by Niles brought him to second base and the other two lads home to give Newmarket a 4-0 lead. Giles fanned and Trivett went out on a fly.

In Aurora's half of the inning, parade in the fifth, Shore and Collings hit safely and Ray White walked. A hit by Hodgins brought Shore home, and Rolling's two-bagger paid off in runs by Collings and White.
Buck fanned, Wilf White got to first on a hit, and Bone went out at first to end the inning.

Newmarket went hitless in the sixth, Neufeld going out at first

Band was in attendance.
Mrs. Dean and daughter, also Ruth Kitchen and Vera, of Holland Landing, called on friends in Zephyr one day this week.

Mr. Hoover and Mrs. Hoover of Stouffville were visiting at Mr.

"If the mayor wants to bring

Mr. Evans.

"If all the council supported it, I think it might carry," said
Mr. Mathews.

"If the industrial committee thought it would go over, would they support it?" asked Mr.
Spillette.

"We are not so much influenced by the attitude of the people, as by the fact that we can't get certain influential support to put it before the people," said Mr. Vale.

"The more you know about a business proposition, the more you get cold feet," said Dr. Boyd.

"We are ready to work for it as anybody," said Mr. Evans.

"It would be good business, if we could acquire the Dixon factory, to go to the people with a proposal for fixing it up," said
Mr. Bowser.

"I wish to congratulate the industrial committee," said Councillor Wm. Dixon. "This firm expects too much. They want the cost of bringing them here, and the cost of a factory. If they were prepared to go 50-50,
I would consider it. Then they would have a retail store here and put local people out of business."

"You are mistaken," said Dr.
Boyd. "They have no retail store where they are, and that is a bigger town than this. It is a town of 4,500. They would bring a lot of money into town and make the ladies wear shops prosper."

"It would have cost them quite a bit to come here," said Mr.
Evans. "They would have the expense of interrupting business and training new girls."

"There is no use submitting it to the people unless everybody is for it," said Mr. Bowser.

"Let's drop it for now," said
Dr. Boyd.

RAIN DOES NOT DISCOURAGE CROWDS ATTENDING MOUNT ALBERT SPORTS DAY

Weather conditions did not seem to affect the crowds who turned out to attend Mount Albert's annual sports day, held on Saturday last, for although showers threatened, pretty much all day, the sports, races, etc., were nearly all carried out during the afternoon.

The ball games were not finished up, owing to the rain at night, but the first money was given Unionville, and Greenwood, Highland Creek and Sharon divided the other prizes.

The clown "Sammy" entertained the children all the afternoon. Russ Creighton was a very fine master of ceremonies, announcing each event over the loud speaker and everyone was kept aware of what was going on. The children entered heartily into all the races provided for them by Mr. Barnes.

The greased pig was caught by Norman Lunan and the rooster was caught by Lillian Connell of Keswick. The prize for the oldest person was presented to Mrs. Rear. The one for coming the longest distance was given to Rev. H. O. Dyke, of Gold Park, who had come over 700 miles.

The baby show was won by Marilyn Reid, 5-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reid (nee Hazel Slorach) of Toronto. Second prize went to James Byer of Mount Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Byer, and Marion Wright, Queensville, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Wright, was third.

The contests in the horse-shoe pitching were won by: first, King and McShane, Mount Albert; second, Carr and Hill, Holt; third, Glendinning and Stouffer, Stouffville; fourth, Carr and Driver, Stouffville.

SCOTT COUNCIL MEET AS REVISION COURT

Scott township council met as a court of revision to consider the appeals made against the assessment roll for 1939, on Saturday morning.

The appeal of Levi Castor was considered, where he thought himself too highly assessed and also had sold a portion of his lands.

Assessment was reduced for this year to $1,900 and $700 of the assessment was transferred to Edwin Corbett for land purchased.

Ross McCueken appealed for reduction and the sum of $100 was cut down on building assessment. Assessment of Wm. Brown for the Ufara hotel property was reduced by $100, and assessments of Douglas McPherson and Harry Sedore were sustained, both having been reduced this year by the assessor.

The matter of several whose assessments were increased last year after service of assessment notice was discussed. Several of these were adjusted and the assessment of Marwood Parish was reduced by $200 this year.

In the afternoon the council meeting was held, when letters were read from the deputy minister of health, notifying of the admission of a patient to the Ontario hospital, and from R. D. Ruddy, county clerk, notifying of a patient admitted to the Toronto General hospital; from Dr. W. L. Carruthers in further reference to accounts formerly sent in; from Dr. E. As the dogs of Ashley Rieborough, Norman Gibson, Norman Kennedy, Wilfred Fletcher and Frank Carl had either been killed or owners had removed from the township, assessment was struck off the roll.

The following resolution was passed: "That as a final effort to have all delinquent dog owners from having to pay summons and fines, as well as dog tax, that Constable N. Murray be instructed to call on these men and if tax not paid to him at once, give Mr. Murray authority to enter action against these men."
